PANIC AMONG YOUNG WOMEN.

Four hundred young women milliners employed in the upper floors of a 12-story building at 652 Broadway, N. Y., became panic-stricken yesterday when a fire on the fifth floor filled the stairways so full of smoke that they were impassable. The salesroom and storage room of Alfred A. Zimer on the fifth floor already was blazing fiercely when the flames and smoke burst into the hallways, spreading the alarm throughout the building, which was crowded like a hive.

Screaming with fright, the girls first attempted to find an exit by the stairs, but they were stopped by the smoke at the seventh floor. A number of them made a frantic dash for the windows on that floor and jumped to the roof of an adjoining building, a story or more below the windows.

Hundreds of other girls dashed for the elevators, two of which were kept running through the smoked-filled shaft. Frightened by the danger and almost asphyxiated by the smoke, many of the girls were fainting or unconscious when the elevator reached the ground floor. Others were hysterical with fright and created a great commotion by their screams.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. 'I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarroea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

BRIDE KILLS HERSELF.

Dressed in her wedding gown, 16-year old Mrs. Louis Ysrass, bride of less than a year, yesterday fired a revolver shot through her heart while alone in her husband's home, 168 east Twenty-second street, Bayonne, N. J. Melancholy, resultant from approaching maternity, is the only reason assigned for the suicide of the girl, whose 20-year-old husband on going home for luncheon found the bride cold in death, stretched upon a bed, the revolver still clasped in her right hand, while the bullethole through the white wedding gown told its terrible story.

The girl-wife must have begun preparations for death as soon as she had kissed her husband a loving adieu when he started that morning for his work at the Standard Oil works. The breakfast dishes were untouched, and the house showed that she had done nothing save make herself ready to die. She donned her white wedding gown, which had been carefully laid away ever since her wedding day, and in addition she put on her white stockings and shoes, which had formed part of her bridal costume.

Then she locked all the doors, bolted the windows, lay down in bed and shot herself through the heart.

PENSION FOR EARLY.

A pension was granted yesterday by the United States government to John R. Early, a supposed victim of leprosy, who now is being maintained by the authorities of the District of Columbia. He was for a considerable time a soldier in the United States army, and it was during his service in the Philippines that he probably contracted the disease with which he is afflicted. He was discharged from the army at Platt-burg barracks, New York, in 1904. Pension Commissioner Warner issued to him a pension certificate for $12 a month from July 12, 1907, to August 31, 1908, and a certificate for $72 a month to date from August 31, 1908. An effort is being made to have the authorities of the United States Soldiers' Home, at Washington, assume the burden of Early's care, but the arrangements have not been concluded.

Practically the entire business section of Sumner, Miss., was destroyed and one man, A. M. Phipps, lost his life in a fire of unknown origin, which was discovered in the building occupied by H. H. Polk & Company early yesterday. Phipps was smothered to death while he slept. The property loss is estimated at $100,000, partly covered by insurance, the buildings destroyed including the recently erected courthouse, a hotel, seven stores, and office buildings and several residences.

Raymond Corbin, 17 years old, of Washington, was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with stealing six canvas bags containing $103 43 from a desk in a local department store last Wednesday night. According to the police, Corbin confessed to having taken the money, and told them where $50 of it could be recovered. He said he was "hard up," and needed the cash.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 4, 1908.

THE special grand jury called to probe the recent race war at Springfield, Ill., adjourned Thursday night, after returning 117 indictments. Among these returned were indictments against four Springfield policemen. They are indicted for alleged failure to suppress the riot when detailed for that duty. The report says:

After the most diligent inquiry, we condemn in unmeasured terms the cowardly, contemptuous action of those members of the police force who, having taken the oath of office, failed to do their duty; men who were paid from money obtained from the pockets of the people of this city to protect life and property; men who were ordered by the heads of departments of the police to go out and disperse the mob, and who not only failed to use a club, handle a pistol or raise a voice against the mob on the side of law and order, but some of whom are shown to have assisted by act and word in doing the work that has brought destruction to thousands of dollars of property, and has brought the blush of shame to every law-abiding citizen of this city; men who under oath were bound and who, had they acted promptly could have driven back to the obscurity from whence it came the mob that for a time assumed to hold Springfield in its bloody grasp. We recommend that the Civil Service Commission of the city of Springfield, without fear or favor, and while evidence can easily be obtained, determine by fair trial who failed to prove himself a worthy member of the force and deal with him accordingly.

This is a severe arraignment but no worst than the policemen in question deserve, and they should be severely punished. For policemen to aid a mob is as bad as for soldiers to desert their cause and join the enemy during a battle. Similar action to that of the Springfield policemen has been taken by those in other cities under similar circumstances and with similar results. Prompt, cool and determined action on the part of police officers could have frequently prevented troubles which have ended disastrously by reason of the lack of nerve, judgment and sense of duty.

THE enormous expenses of the three millionaire candidates for United States Senator from Wisconsin prior to Tuesday's primary election may result in an investigation by the Legislature. Senator LaFollette is said to be angry because of the failure of his candidate to be elected, and the investigation is proposed in order to circumvent Isaac Stephenson, with whom LaFollette broke and who won in the primary. The amount expended by the candidates is said to have been from $400,000 to $850,000. The millionaires, as a rule, seems possessed with a morbid desire to get themselves elected to the Senate. It is a position of honor and dignity comporting with the possession of great wealth, and the duties are not necessarily burdensome. In the selection of members to the "million dollar club" the constituents of some of these Senators seem to prefer money to brains.

ENCOURAGED by the recent decision of the Federal Court in Cincinnati sustaining the position of the government as to the proper branding of spirits, Mr. Wiley, chief pure food expert of the Department of Agriculture, has fired another broadside into the camp of the imitation whisky men. Dr Wiley says:

In discussing the question of fake whisky, about 98 per cent. of the stuff handed out over the bars of this country for whisky is not entitled to be called whisky at all. I know for a fact that very little real whisky is sold. Any one who has a taste for real whisky and wants to be sure he is getting it should see to it that the bottle has the green stamp of the United States on the cork. That means it is pure and at least four years old.

Now, many who have been drinking "something fine" for these many years will want to know what they have been drinking, anyhow.

THIRTY-NINE young graduates of nine American forest schools have lately received appointments as forest assistants in the forest service, and have been assigned to positions for the present field season. They have obtained appointments by passing the regular civil service examination, which is the only avenue to employment as a forester under the government. There is a growing interest in the profession of forestry now, and many young men are asking how to get into it and what it promises. The destruction of the American forests has been so rapid in the past few years that the government finds it necessary to lend its aid and encouragement in the planting of trees and in instructing the people how to cultivate them.

THE Old Dominion Sun, a republican paper published in Staunton, says that Mr. Taft was not seriously impressed with the greatness, sagacity and ability of the republican leaders in Virginia as manifested at Hot Springs on the occasion of the ovation given to Mr. Taft, as the republican nominee for president. The Sun should not tell tales out of school.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 5.

November 9th. is the day set for the launching of the battleship North Dakota, which has been in process of construction for the past 11 months at the Fore River Shipbuilding Company's yard at Fore River, Mass. The record for speed of this vessel has been surpassed in the history of modern battleship building but once and that was by a ship of a sister type of the English Dreadnought. A fierce rivalry has been on by the Fore River Company and the Newport News Company which has been engaged upon the Delaware, a ship of similar size and power but the work on the Dakota is in advance of the Delaware and five months in advance of similar construction in any American ship yards on battleship work. The allowance of time specified by the government in advertising for bids for vessels of this type was 36 months, and all indications point to the completion of the work upon the North Dakota many months before this time.

The steamer Cymric which sails from Boston, next Saturday, for Liverpool will carry back seven more Mormons whose cases, investigated by the immigrant officials, have disclosed conditions which make it impossible for them to land. Orders for their deportation were sent yesterday from Washington following an exhaustive examination into their cases and appeals. Several more Mormon cases are to be acted upon and it is likely a few more may be denied permission to land.

The twelve o'clock train on the electric railway which left this city for Alexandria today, when near the Monument grounds, struck an old man, apparently a countryman, and it is thought fatally injured him. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where it was thought he would die.

Mistaking a bottle of carbolic acid for a bottle of medicine, Mrs. J. R. Price of Richmond yesterday morning swallowed some of the poison. Realizing the mistake, however, as soon as she had swallowed it, Mrs. Price called to her husband, who was down stairs. Price ran to a near by drug store, procured an antidote and, hurrying home, administered it to his wife with such excellent results that she is now entirely out of danger.

The Anti-Saloon League of Fairfax county held its annual county convention at Oakton yesterday. The meeting were largely attended by representatives from the local clubs throughout the county. Rev. J. A. Strother, of Fairfax; Messrs. M. E. Church and George W. Hawxhurst, of Falls Church, and Rev. Dr. Ed J. Richardson, field secretary for northern Virginia, addressed the convention.

Claiborne Motley, a colored convict, from Danville, made his escape from the Virginia penitentiary Thursday night He was serving a term of seven years for felonious assault. He was employed with others on the new armory building at the penitentiary. Late in the afternoon Motley went to the rear of the building and opened a hole large enough to secrete his body in the soft earth. Climbing in, he succeeded in piling sufficient old boards over the opening to conceal himself. The guards made an unsuccessful search for him, passing often over the spot. He remained in this condition until late at night, when he made a dive for the negro section. A reward of $50 has been offered for his arrest.

One of the cleverest pieces of fraud in the annals of the State has been unearthed with the arrest of David Buchanan, postmaster, and Elijah Stacey, his assistant, at Golden Springs, Buchanan county, on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses, and using the mails for the purpose of fraud. These men, it is alleged, ordered goods from the mail order houses of Chicago for the last two years. When the articles arrived a cheap imitation was secured and mailed back to the house, with a letter claiming that the company had not sent what was ordered. The substitution of a paste dismond ring for a real one led to their arrest. The two men, having complete control of the postoffice under their charge, had been doing a big business under this scheme.

Humphries, of Washington, died at Georgetown University Hospital last night as the result of burns received in the afternoon while playing in the rear yard of a neighbor's house. The body was removed to the parents' home, and will be taken to Lynchburg tomorrow for burial.

Three thousand people are homeless, a score or more are injured, several seriously, and the entire business section of Rawhide, Nev., is burned, as a result of a destructive conflagration that started in the basement of the Rawhide Drug Company's store, in the heart of the business section yesterday, and did not cease until it had burned itself out. The loss will aggregate $750,000, without a dollar of insurance. The citizens of Rawhide met today and prepared to rebuild. Undaunted by the fire which swept the place, and caused $1,000,000 losses and left 3,000 homeless and facing starvation the inhabitants have adopted the words, "watch us grow" as their slogan.

The fireman of Baltimore and Ohio engine No. 2593, in charge of Engineer A. Wrick, of Cumberland, Md., yesterday found a box containing six sticks of dynamite in the coal in the tender. The discovery of the dynamite was made while the train was coming from Quemahoning Junction, Pa., to Cumberland, and had it gone into the engine furnace, would have blown the engine to atoms and wrecked the train.

Seven men volunteered to give portions of their cuticle for little Andrew Buscher, 9 years of age, in one of the most important skin-grafting operations ever known in Washington, performed in Georgetown Hospital yesterday morning. Burned places on the boy's back, neck, and left shoulder were covered, the total of skin being almost 2 feet square. So far as the physicians can tell, the operation has been a success, and the boy is doing well.

Rev. Herman C Denny, S. J., died yesterday at Woodstock College, Baltimore, of the infirmities of old age. Not only was he one of the oldest and most learned members of the Society of Jesus in the United States, but he was also one of its wealthiest. To him there came annually thousands upon thousands of dollars from his father's estate, but of those thousands only a few hundred were devoted to his personal comfort. The large income went to charity.

A sad accident in connection with the death of young Walter Griffith, autoist, who was killed Thursday night on the Chancelford pike, while coasting, was make known at York, Pa., yesterday. As soon as his friends learned of the accident they telegraphed his sweetheart, Miss Vene Cathcart, of Baltimore, to whom he was to be married shortly. She went to York expecting to find him improved and conscious. When she alighted from the train she was informed that her lover had died at noon. He never regained consciousness.

Today's Telegraphic News

Crash of Balloons.

New York, Sept. 5.—Winging their way through the air at a terrific speed while the white faced passengers clutched frantically at the frail frame and sat terror-stricken awaiting the catastrophe, two airships here crashed together in the first sky collision in the history or aviation. Speeding at different angles two monsters of the air smashed together and the fragments dropped on the roofs of the sleeping city below. It happened at the Hippodrome and as a result the opening performance of the big spectacle "the battle of the skies," billed for tonight, has been postponed for a week and a hundred men are busy repairing the big air crafts. The smash took place early today during the closing dress rehearsal of the new show and though no one was seriously hurt a number of the occupants of the ship were badly shaken up and Edwin Clark, baritone of the Hippodrome was only saved from serious injury by his lucky grab of a trailing rope ladder as he fell.

Attack on the Prince.

Glasgow, Sept. 5.—With cries of denunciation against the city corporation officials for their extravagance in giving an elaborate luncheon today in honor of Prince Arthur, while thousands of the citizens are in want, a crowd of socialists and unemployed attempted to mob the prince and to storm the hall where the luncheon was served. Warned of the attack, a heavy guard of police was at the station when the prince arrived and an escort surrounded him as he was driven to the city hall. All along the route the mob jeered and hooted the prince and the police, the latter being compelled to beat off the crowd on numerous occasions. A number of persons were injured by the fierce tactics that the officers were forced to adopt. After the prince entered the hall the mob attempted to break in, but hundreds of extra police fought the infuriated men back. The demonstration was the fiercest yet made by the socialists and unemployed.

The Algeciras Treaty.

Paris, Sept. 5.—The foreign office announced today that it had received information that every power included in the Algeciras treaty had notified Germany that they would not consider the latter's proposal for the immediate recognition of Mulai Hafid, as sultan of Morocco, until the joint note of France and Spain, mandatories of the powers in Morocco, is formulated.

In the notes received from the signatories, the foreign office says, there is an unmistakable intimation that the powers decline to be identified with Hermann's discourtesy and treachery.

The foreign office mentions only England and Italy as replying to the German note, but realizes that all signatories, excepting Germany, have signified their intention of ignoring the kaiser.

As soon as Spain finally approves the terms of the joint note, it will be communicated to the powers.

Incendiary Arrested.

New York, Sept. 5.—In the capture of John McNally, who says he has been delegated by the Almighty to destroy Manhattan, the police here today believe they have traced the origin of a score of incendiary fires which have for weeks thrown the East side in terror and have destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property besides endangering the lives of hundreds. When McNally was arrested in a hallway near the section recently visited by a score of tenement fires, his pockets were full of matches and his clothing reeked with smoke.

"I just went into the hallway to protect all these children" he said when arrested. "I have just come from visiting President Roosevelt and am about to fulfill the commands of the Almighty by destroying New York."

McNally will be examined as to his sanity.

Arrest at Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J, Sept. 5.—Jesse Jackson, the negro chair pusher in charge of the chair containing Charles G. Roberts and Mrs. W. S. G. Williams, the principals in the boardwalk shooting mystery, was placed under arrest today and held in $500 bail. The police intimate that some sensational developments are pending. Although Jackson declined to talk today Chief of Detective Whalen stated that Jackson swore to him that the interview published this morning in which he (the negro) was quoted as repudiating the highwayman theory, was absolutely false, Jackson said he never made any such statement.

Act of Frenzied Father.

Genoa, Sept. 5.—Distracted at the sight of his little son Anton being run down and killed by an automobile today in which were the Marchionesses of Revidim, Angel Galloni, an engineer living on the outskirts of the city, drew a revolver and shot the chauffeur dead and fatally shot the younger sister.

The automobile, becoming uncontrollable, upset, fatally injuring the elder marchioness. Both of the sisters are dying in a local hospital. Galloni is under arrest.

The tragedy has caused intense excitement throughout the city.

The little boy was playing in the roadway when struck by the machine, which the father says was going at terrific speed.

Racing in New Jersey.

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 5.—Charges that betting is going on freely at the Elkwood Park races here today stirred the attorney general of the state who put the matter up to the prosecuting attorney of Monmouth county, declaring all forms of race track gambling a plain violation of the New Jersey constitution and calling for action. There being no races at Sheepshead Bay yesterday it is declared that the New York racing contingent rushed here and held a perfect carnival of wagering. The bets, it is said, were oral but plentiful. Today there will be seven races at Elkwood. It is expected that the authorities will move to make gambling difficult if not impossible.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of my dear mother, MARGARET V. CARTER, who died September 5, 1907.

Day by day I saw her fade
And gently pass away;
Yet often in my dreams I prayed
That she might longer stay.
If love and care could death prevent,
Her days would not so soon be spent;
She suffered long and murmured not,
Though far away she is not forgot.
The Lord does all things for the best
And took her home with Him to rest.

FROM HER DAUGHTER.

The Ohio Republicans.

Youngstown, O., Sept. 5.—The republican campaign in Ohio opened here today. The streets are crowded with marching clubs, politicians, bands, automobiles and plain people. The city has spent $25,000 to make the affair a success and the weather is good. Up to the last minute efforts were made to get Forsker here but he declined. Some of the committeemen think there would have been a better showing of harmony if Taft and Foraker had come; others are glad Forsker kept away. Governor Hughes, of New York, was the first speaker to arrive. Senator Beveridge came with the Americus Club of Pittsburg and Governor Harris with the Tippecanoe Club of Cleveland. At 11 o'clock the parade moved. The speaking will begin at 2 o'clock in the park. Congressman James Kennedy is temporary chairman and Arthur I. Vorys, Taft's manager, in the state, the permanent chairman. Rev. W. S. Scarborough, a negro, President of the Wilberforce University, will deliver the invocation. Governor Harris is the first speaker and will be followed by Governor Hughes and Senator Beveridge.

The speeches by Governor Hughes, of New York and Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, sounded the key note of the national contests, while an address by Governor Harris, of Ohio, explained why he thought the republicans should be continued in power in the state.

Governor Hughes confined himself principally to a discussion of the policies of the two dominant parties. He declared for prompt revision of the tariff, strict laws to insure purity of elections and for legislation to protect the small business man and the laborer.

Senator Beveridge restricted his speech largely to a comparison of the qualifications of the two candidates. He condemned Bryan as a dreamer who has never solved one great problem, and lauded Taft as the candidate who has done all. One represents theory, the other practice, he declared.

Bank Suspends.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 5.—The Cosmopolitan National Bank of Pittsburg closed its doors today by order of the Comptroller of the Currency who appointed Robert Lyons receiver. He is already acting as receiver of the Allegheny National Bank. The resources and liabilities on July 15 was $1,912,520.

The federal officials in charge of the closed bank refuse to throw any light on the reasons leading to the step further than to declare the institution has been found to be insolvent.

The bank officers are indignant, declaring that the step is a highhanded outing and utterly uncalled for. The deposits aggregate in round figure $700,000 and there $100,000 each of government and state funds each covered by bond.

Killed Wife and Self.

East Bridgewater, Mass., Sept. 5.—While believed to be in a crazed by sickness and despondency, as he had been ill for some time previous, Kimball E. Sheldon, aged 76, formerly of the firm of Rogers and Sheldon, and one of the wealthiest and most respected citizens of his town, beat his wife's brains out with an iron bar last night and this morning was himself found asphyxiated in the bath room of his home. The victim was 73 years old and had been married over 50 years. The crime had been carefully planned, evidently, for a special delivery letter, mailed last night was delivered this morning to Dr. A. L. Thirely, of East Bridgewater, notifying him of the double tragedy and directing what action to be taken. It was about 8 o'clock when the physician broke into the house and found the two dead.

Bill Not There.

Middletown, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Hunted for two weeks through the forests of two states, twice wounded, twice captured and twice escaped, bad Bill Monroe who assaulted six members of the Dio family at New Platz has blossomed forth as a mirthful outlaw. Pilgrims to the Orange county fair last Thursday discovered a notice pinned to a tree which read: "I will be at the fair Thursday. There is a reward of $500 for my capture. Come and get me. Bill Monroe." Every sleuth for miles around was at the fair but there was no sign of "Bill."

Forty thousand men are idle in the hop picking district.

THE CITY LAWS.

The codification of the city laws is a matter that has been before the City Council in one form or another for decades. Councilman J. Fred. Birrell, offered a resolution in regard to the matter some years ago, at least the subject was discussed at a joint meeting of the committee on finance and general laws sometime prior to the death of the late Geo. L. Simpson. All the members were present except Mr. W. W. Ballenger, who was not then well enough to attend the meeting. The importance or necessity for a codification was discussed and an officer of the city was asked by the committee to accept the work, and he would be compensated. He declined, and this is perhaps the nearest approach to a new code. Mr. Birrell may be a little chagrined at this evidence of "the law's delay," but a prior service in Council, and his experience as a clerk in the general assembly of Virginia have educated him in legislative disappointments. Members of Council remember that on December 10 last they held a meeting in the auditor's office. A communication was received from the fire wardens "recommending an appropriation of $3,500 for a Gamewell fire alarm system" whereupon Mr. Birrell, with mock solemity, and a sigh said: "That's good, it will keep." It was referred to the finance committee. Mr. Birrell was right. Twenty-one years ago, July 1, 1887, the late Mayor W. B. Smoot upon assuming office for a second term, in a few remarks said: "I have on several occasions sent to Council communications on various subjects, some of which were heeded, others ignored, etc. Regarding the codification of the city laws, the last codification was in 1874, amendments made, and new laws enacted, the latter mostly printed in pamphlet form and not always available."

The code of 1874, and it is a good one in its preparation, necessarily contains much to be found in those preceeding it.

In 1821 there was prepared a fine edition of our city laws, carefully printed with many intelligent marginal notes. And the code of 1821 is in most cases a reproduction of the acts of 1809-1811 in language and arrangement, when Mr. Herbert was mayor, and Hugh Smith president of council. The acts of 1809-11 are also clearly printed and the laws as to poor house, markets, nuisances, health and many other corporation laws have been followed in each codification since, almost identical in language. All of which furnishes the most complete evidence that those who managed the affairs of the town of Alexandria a hundred years ago were as wise in their age and generation as are those who control the destiny of the city today. The late Mayor Smoot referred to leaflets. In the last two of these leaflets—the laws passed from March 13, 1900, to May 24, 1904—the pages number 115, and the laws passed number 105. At least one half of page space and one half of the laws relate to street, sewer and other ordinances that have already served their purposes, and are now matters of the past, and of course would not form part of a codification if one was arranged.

ISRAEL, OH ISRAEL.

Israel, or the man who was told that "a horse does not die where he lives," is in trouble and spent the morning getting a mule driven by him for Messrs. Dreifus out of King street dock. He backed him overboard and what happened to him or what was said to him by the owners can be better imagined than described. While extricating the animal from the water a colored man was kicked in the head and the shoe flew from the mule's hoof and hit a bystander, badly lacerating his arm.

MASS MEETING.

The democrats of this city will meet in Sarepta Hall tonight to effect an organization of a democratic club. Members of the democratic party are taking an active interest in the meeting, and it is presumed it will be largely at ended.

THE GIRL FROM MISSOURI.

"The Girl from Missouri" is one of the most beautiful plays of the year. Its scenes are symphonies of color, and its electrical effects superb. All the characters are from living men and women whom the author, Granville F. Sturgis, has met and loved during his sojourns in the west. The play is treated with a delicacy and sympathy only possible when one writes of the people and the section of country nearest and dearest to the heart. To see "The Girl from Missouri" is as refreshing as a breath of air from the pine-clad hills of home. It will be presented at the Opera House on Monday next, matinee and night.

POPULAR BRANDS.

Liquors, like other essentials in life, must be of a quality to insure satisfaction. The man of today cannot be led into the belief that an article is good by means of an advertisement or the recommendation of others. The wise man has to be shown. Without detracting from the merits of other brands in this establishment a specialty is being offered by Fairfax & Co., in "Lord Fairfax Whisky," which is being sold by all first class houses. Go where you will and you will find this brand of whisky has preceded you. Its quality speaks in louder tones then a recommendation. Fairfax & Co. is the sole distrubutor of this whisky. As far as the proprietors are concerned it is needless to speak of them for everyone who has had dealings at this popular establishment attest their friendship by calling again. No other house in this city carries a better or larger stock or assortment of first class wines and liquors than Fairfax & Co.

SALE OF LAND.

Mr. John A. Marshall has sold to Mr. Erasmus Brady, of Fairfax county, for $1,000 cash, a tract of land located at Cub Run, Fairfax county. It will be remembered by old citizens that General Stoughton, of the federal army, had his headquarters upon this run when captured by Col. John S. Mosby during the civil war. General Stoughton had sent out detachments from his camp in the hope of capturing the noted raider—Mosby. About midnight Col. Mosby appeared in Stroughton's camp and aroused the federal general. General Stoughton, supposing he was surrounded by his own men, asked, "Have you got Mosby." Mosby replied, "No, but I have got you."

EXCITEMENT ON CARS.

It was learned this morning that there was considerable excitement on a car on the Falls Church electric line leaving Washington about midnight when it reached the flats in Washington between the tidal basin and the highway bridge. The car contained about 30 passengers and was discovered to be on fire. It was in charge of Conductor F. Kloss, of Ballston, and Motorman E. E Plant, of this city, who worked heroically in extinguishing the flames. An alarm was turned in to the Washington fire department and an engine responded but the fire by this time was under control. Damage to the extent of $150 was the result. No one was injured.

LABOR DAY.

Monday next will be Labor Day, a legal holiday, and will be observed as such. The banks and government buildings and public offices will be closed and the possoffice will keep Sunday hours, but otherwise business will go on about as usual. The factories and work shops will be closed and those who can do so will spend the day in recreation. The day marks the close of the excursion season and the steamers and railroads are anticipating a large business.

THE SCHOOLS.

As heretofore stated the issuing of permits to pupils to attend the public schools will commence at Armory Hall on Monday next, the 7th inst., and will continue through the week. The doors will open at 9 a. m. and close at 2 p. m. Permits will be issued to white children on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and to colored children on Thursday and Friday. Those wanting to secure seats for their children must present their capitation tax receips for the year 1908.

ECHOES OF BOAT RACE.

On the occasion of the boat race on Thursday the residents of the Mount Vernon district were startled by loud reports from the river as if an explosion had occurred or a steamboat wrecked. The anxiety was so intense that Mr. T. F. Ellis, agent at Mount Vernon, was kept busy with the telephone. After an hour had elapsed Mr. Ellis discovered that the noise was that from Admiral Calmes' yacht preparatory to entering the race.

PLEASURE PARTY.

The usual Labor Day excursion of employees of the Washington Navy Yard and their friends will start this afternoon on the naptha yacht Edna Earl, owned by Mr. George Nugent. Besides the owner those who will comprise the party from this city are Messrs. J. F., E. M., and Forrest Birrell, and Messrs Watkins, Suthard and Poss. They go as far as the White House Landing.

POLICE COURT.

Only one case was heard at police court this morning and that was one of assault. A business man was before the justice on the charge of assaulting his employe. Justice Caton dismissed the charge.

MASS MEETING.

The democrats of the city will meet in Sarepta Hall tonight to effect an organization of a democratic club. Members of the democratic party are taking an active interest in the meeting and it is presumed it will be largely attended.

It it understood that Col. F. L. Smith who had been offered the presidency of the club has stated that he will be unable to accept the honor and the names of Messrs. S. G Frost and J. M. Hill are mentioned in connection with the position.

ON THE FLY.

Orville Wright once more demonstrated his mastery of the air late yesterday afternoon at Fort Myer, when he made his second public ascent in the aeroplane, remaining up 4 minutes and 15 seconds, circling the parade grounds 5½ times, and traversing a distance of over 2½ miles, at an average speed of 36 miles an hour. Army officers who witnessed the flight declared it to be the most wonderful exhibition of its kind they had ever seen.

Mr. Wright descended with remarkable ease. To the spectators it seemed as if the big machine settled to earth as gently as a wind-blown bit of thistledown. The aeroplane was under perfect control when the descent was made, and could undoubtedly have remained in the air for a much longer time. In alighting when he did the aviator was merely following out his original plan of making each flight a little longer than the previous one. He does not propose to make long flights until the machine has "found" itself and until he feels that he has gained perfect control of it.

THE FASTEST BOATS.

A great deal of comment is being made about the races a day or two ago. It is a well known fact that the Augusta is the fastest keel boat afloat in this section. It is also known that the Kindo, owned by Mr. Wm. E. Moore, is the fastest speed boat in this city. Both of these yachts were beaten. The owners have said nothing about their defeat and it is presumed they care little about the award of the cups. It may be possible that the handicaps were faulty but this being the first race of the kind the boat owners must recognize that the committee on races did what they thought just and if there is any error they are themselves to blame. Another cause of complaint is that the boat owned by Mr. Chadwick should have been placed in the speedboat class, whereas it was in the race with boats making 5 and 6 miles an hour. But the races are over and everybody is elated over the success of the Elks' Dramatic Club, which is the first organization to attempt to "pull off" an event of this kind.

PLACED UNDER BOND.

Robert H. Partridge, of Fairfax county, Va., was brought before Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett by Deputy Marshall Joseph Glover, on the charge of obtaining money by false representation in the neighborhood of $9,000. He was indicted in Washington city and will be tried in that city. Detective Sergeant Mullin of Washington went to Fairfax but was not allowed to take the prisoner. He then went to Warrenton secured a state warrant, had Partridge arrested and Judge Turner refused to let him have the prisoner without requisition papers. Mullen then came to Alexandria and swore out a warrant before U. S. Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett. The prisoner was brought before Mr. Garnett last night and at request of his council, Messrs. Norton and Boothe, he was placed under temporary bond in the sum of $200 till next Tuesday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

TRIP TO THE BAY.

Not having taken a summer vacation, and in hopes of recuperation from a very busy warm season, Councilmen Charles B. Marshall, Frank C. Spinks and Police Commissioner A. H. Oehlert will today set sail on the schooner Ella Hill for the lower Potomac and Chesapeake Bay. Captain Frank Dixon will be in command of the vessel, and it will be up to him as to the destination. All arrangements have been made and it is an enviable trip. The only thing missing will be a correspondent, other essentials having been already provided.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS.

The following officers of Mount Vernon R. A. Chapter, No. 14, were elected at the meeting last night: Samuel P. Fisher, H. P.; Wm. H. Charles, King; M. L. Dinwiddie, Scribe; W. Lewis Allen, Treasurer; K. Kemper, Secretary; A. G. Unler, Deputy Secretary; Frank W. Latham, Capt. of Host; Thomas A. Fisher, Prin. Sojourner; W. B. Davis, Royal Arch Captain; O. H. Fletcher, Page Waller and W O. Davis, Grand Masters of Veils; Rev. E. V. Regester, Chaplain; Leopold Ruben, Steward, and P. C. Timberman, Tiler.

PAID $3 FOR FRIEND'S WIFE.

John Foster was indignant last night when taken before Lieut. O'Neil, in the old west Twentieth street station, New York, charged with having stabbed Mrs. Lillian Faye with a penknife, and also with having broken her nose while calling at her home, 305 west Nineteenth street.

"I don't see what the law has to do with that," said Foster. "I have a perfect right to do as I did."

"You are not her husband," said the lieutenant.

"That makes no difference," said Foster. "I bought her from her husband for $3 Haven't I got a right to do as I please in that case?"

Lieut. O'Neil ordered Foster locked up.

PLOT TO KILL HECHLER.

Mrs. J. L. Hechler and Royal Ellerson were in the police court in Richmond yesterday to answer a charge of having conspired together for the purpose of murdering the husband of the woman. This is the case that at racted so much attention several weeks ago, when Hechler was badly injured by being struck twice with bullets fired at him by Ellerson, whom he had found at night in company with Mrs. Hechler.

The man and the woman were both remanded to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Much evidence was adduced to show that there was a conspiracy between the two. It was shown that the reports about burglars being in the neighborhood were manufactured and circulated, it is said, for the express purpose of inducing Hechler to go into the yard so that he might be made a t rget for Ellerson

Witnesses were produced who testified to having seen Mrs. Hechler greet Ellerson affectionately when he came to the house. Others stated that she had been heard to say that her husband was a fool and that she wished somebody would kill him and get him out of her way.
